

Dear National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week Participant:

Banfield, The Pet Hospital®, is honored to partner with The Humane Society of the United States during this year's National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, which takes place November 6-12, 2005.

To celebrate this special week, Banfield hospitals nationwide will offer all Pets adopted during National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week a complimentary physical exam at any of our more than 500 full-service hospitals located in PETSMART stores across the country. Go to www.banfield.net to find a location near you and to read more about this great offer.

Please make as many photocopies as you need of the certificate below and present it to every new Pet parent who adopts a Pet from your shelter during National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week. The certificate can be redeemed for one complimentary physical exam at any Banfield hospital nationwide.

Banfield was founded in Portland, Oregon, in 1955 with a commitment to making human quality medical care accessible to all Pet owners. Today, we are driven by the same goal that has always inspired us: Making life better for families by treating Pets like family.

Sincerely,

Karen Johnson, DVM
Vice President, Banfield, The Pet Hospital

In honor of The Humane Society of the United States' National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Banfield, The Pet Hospital®, is proud to present your newly adopted Pet with one complimentary physical exam at any of our more than 500 full-service hospitals located inside PETSMART stores across the country. To locate a Banfield near you and to find out more about this great offer, go to www.banfield.net or call (800) 768-8858.

To: New Pet Parent

From: Banfield, The Pet Hospital

Please present this certificate for one complimentary physical exam, where a Banfield veterinarian will evaluate your Pet from head to tail.

Banfield's state-of-the-art hospitals provide a comprehensive range of superior medical services, including preventive care, surgical treatment, education about maximizing Pet lives through better healthcare and comprehensive Pet health Optimum Wellness Plans®. Making Pet healthcare convenient is important to Banfield, so we operate our full-service hospitals inside PETSMART, which is easy access for families already out shopping with their Pets. Our hospitals also are open convenient hours on evenings and weekends.
