Name of Applicant:

Date of Interview:

Interviewer:

- What interests you about volunteering as an Editor with [organization name]?
- Have you ever volunteered online before? If yes: What did you like about it? What did you not like about it?
- If no: What do you think some of the challenges of virtual volunteering would be? (feel free to share your own experiences)
- Are you currently working or going to school? (if going to school, let them know they may be able to get internship or community service credits- they need to check with their career center)
- Have you been involved with animal rescue work before?
- What does the term “no-kill” mean to you?
- What do you hope to gain from your volunteer experience?
- Do you have any questions for me?

If you feel comfortable with their answers: Thank you. I would like to offer you the volunteer position as Community Editor for...What is your Network name so we can give you Editors rights? You'll be receiving a welcome packet in the mail in about a week. Welcome to the team!

If you are not sure: Thank you. I will be reviewing our conversation and will let you know if we have a good fit for you. In the meantime, please continue to participate in the Network (or: I would like to invite you to participate in your state's community in the Network).
