

Features

18

Dispatches

In their own words: the Katrina stories of animal welfare professionals and volunteers.

32

The Sorrow Is in the Details

In the first days after the storm, some people wondered how anyone could have left their pets behind. As we would all soon discover, that was the wrong question to ask.

41

Reunion Stories

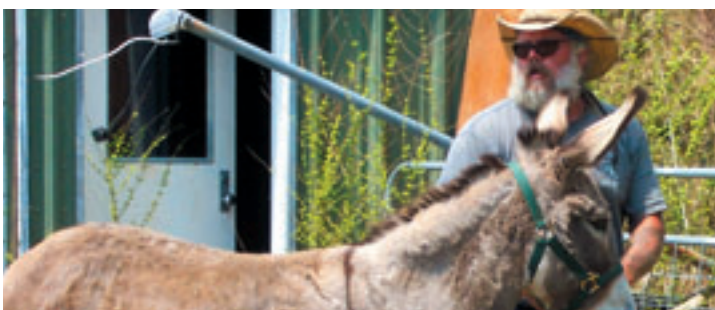

After such destruction, loss, and disappointment, each reunion brought a new reason to celebrate.

54

Winning One for the Nippers

The challenges of caring for aggressive dogs were complicated and magnified in the wake of Katrina.

60

Riding Out the Storm

Katrina took equine expert Allan Schwartz from Florida to Maryland to Mississippi to Louisiana—and then to The HSUS.

Committed to building long, healthy relationships.

Hill's® Science Diet® and the shelter community are both passionately committed to the same cause—giving animals the happy, healthy lives they deserve. The goal of the Science Diet® Shelter Nutrition Partnership program is to provide shelter animals with the best pet nutrition in the world. Feeding Science Diet® brand pet food to the animals in your shelter ensures them a healthy future.

*Let's work together. Join the Science Diet® Shelter Nutrition Partnership today!
Call (866) 283-1217 or send e-mail to shelters@hillspet.com*

Superior Nutrition for the Lifelong Health of Your Pet®

©2005 Hill's Pet Nutrition, Inc. ®/™ Trademarks owned by Hill's Pet Nutrition, Inc. www.ScienceDiet.com

More Features

65 Helping Pets and People

Among the pets cared for at the Houston SPCA were more than a few hurricane stowaways.

67 Divine Intervention in Mississippi?

The storm brought rescuers to a puppy mill in Gautier, and with them, a second chance for many of the animals housed there.

69 The Shelter That Once Was

Louisiana SPCA executive director Laura Maloney describes the aftermath of the storm that devastated her city, destroyed her organization's facility, and changed the lives of her staff.

Mobile...
Adoptions or Spay/Neuter

800-776-9984
www.laboit.com

Rear Surgery Suite & Cages

“One Vehicle... does it all”

Outside Viewing Glass
for Adoptions