

HUMANE SOCIETY OF MISSOURI

20 Fostering Goodwill

Shelters regularly receive inquiries from people who want to foster animals, but the job requires more than just good intentions. In this feature section designed for volunteers and potential foster parents, a longtime fosterer provides tips to those interested in becoming temporary caregivers for homeless pets.

32 How Much is That Doggie in the Window Suffering?

You may not have puppy mills next door, but shelters and rescues all over the country take in animals whose lives began in the shadows of these mass-breeding facilities. Find out how you can help shut them down—by learning from shelters that have targeted puppy mills for violations of animal welfare standards.
