A PRINT PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

The results of greyhound racing aren't always found in the sports section.

This greyhound was found in a dumpster starved and barely alive. Eventually, she became one of about 30,000 greyhounds killed each year after being discarded by the greyhound racing industry. All because they no longer made a profit. To us, that's not sport. Please help stop the cruelty of greyhound racing.

To help stop the cruelty or for more information, contact the Greyhound Protection League,
P.O. Box 620863, Woodside, CA 94062; 800-4HOUNDS; or
The Humane Society of the United States, Companion Animals Section, 2100 L St., NW, Washington, DC 20037; 202-452-1100.

This print ad was originally produced as a poster by the Greyhound Protection League. This PSA has been adapted for other organizations' use as a Reproducible. You can insert your organization's name, address, and phone number in the space provided, then reproduce this print ad in your newsletter or in local newspapers. The Reproducible can also be photocopied and distributed at many community locations.
