

PetsIncredible Does It Again

After a great response to its first DVD for adopters, Training Your Adopted Dog, PetsIncredible has stepped up to bat for the feline set. And like last time, animal shelters are going to benefit.

Your Adopted Cat provides guidance to the new adopter on how to make kitty's transition into her new home easier. It covers issues such as litter-box training, introductions to other pets and children, and correction of problem behaviors. The helpful information is presented in a fun and family-oriented format.

Through the HSUS-supported Shelter Helper Program, shelters, animal control agencies, and rescue organizations can get copies of the DVD for their adopters for 99 cents each—much less than the retail price of $29.95. It's a great adoption add-on that may just help those new relationships last longer.
