

Who's More Likely to Succeed?

These two canine buddies have the same playfulness, the same heart, the same affectionate nature, the same love of a good tennis ball.

You know what they don't share?
The same chance of a home.

*At shelters and rescues around the country, black dogs and cats are frequently the last to be adopted.

Most of us can't figure out why! Sometimes they don't show up as well in their adoption pictures, but these animals are just as friendly and loving as the rest of their kin.

There are so many great reasons to adopt a black animal:

- Black pets are slimming! Go for that jog with Fido and look like you've already lost five pounds.
- A little black cat never goes out of style. Whether you're trying to coordinate with your best outfit or your home, Midnight is sure to match—and her fur on your tuxedo won't even show up.
- Black dogs have that aura of mystery—even when they're licking your face.
- Adopt two or more black cats, and you can have your own miniature black panther party (ha ha).

Don't keep these inky dogs and cats in the dark. They're counting on you to see the beauty and lovability other people miss. Come in and say hi to one of our dark and charming animals—some good pats will be the highlight of their day!
