

It takes all kinds.

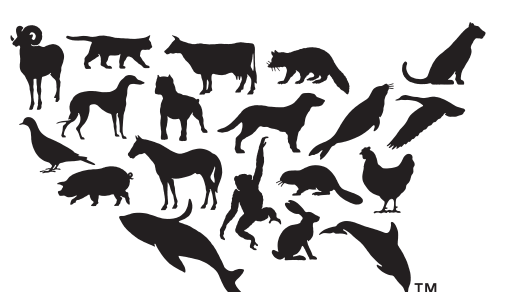

And all kinds is exactly what you get when you adopt a mutt.

Maybe you came looking for a pug, or a beagle, or a golden retriever?

To which I say, "Great! I've got all that and more."

After all, who among your neighbors has a pug-a-beagle-triever? You can be the first.

Leave the Joneses in the dirt. Take me home, and you'll have a pet as unique as you are.
