

Animal Care Expo Online (on-demand) FAQ

What is Animal Care Expo Online (on-demand)?

Animal Care Expo Online is a robust virtual conference experience. The conference live dates were July 22-24, 2020. The live dates provided the greatest opportunity for an interactive experience with other attendees, speakers and exhibitors; however, through November 1, 2020 anyone registered can

- View over 30 on-demand professional development sessions on a variety of topics with continuing education credits available
- Watch the welcome session with Larissa Wohl, special session by Carin Taylor on “The power of inclusion” and the Innovation Showdown
- Browse an exhibit hall featuring many of the companies and organizations who typically exhibit at the face-to-face Expo, showcasing their products and services for the animal welfare field
- The ability to email speakers and exhibitors through their conference profiles and chat with anyone logged in at the same time

How do I view the on-demand content?

If you’ve already registered for Animal Care Expo Online, log in here to view on-demand content until November 1, 2020. If you have registered within the last week, please wait for an email from us to confirm that you now have access to the conference.

What sessions are being offered?

You can find our sessions list, complete with descriptions and speakers, here.

What if I have more questions?

If you have additional questions not answered above, please email expo@humanesociety.org and we will get back to you as soon as we can.